Letter from the President

MISSION STATEMENT

D'Youville College is an independent institution of higher education that offers baccalaureate and graduate programs to students of all faiths, cultures, and backgrounds.

D'Youville College honors its Catholic heritage and the spirit of St. Marguerite d'Youville by providing academic, social, spiritual, and professional development in programs that emphasize leadership and service. D'Youville teaches students to contribute to the world community by leading compassionate, productive, and responsible lives.

Dear Friends,

I admit it—I am a dreamer! Nothing makes me more serene and pensive than staring at a beautiful scene of nature and absorbing it through all my senses. Because of D’Youville’s proximity to water, I especially appreciate the blue, seemingly endless expanse of moving liquid and the pinpoint of light that flicker upon its surface. These beautiful scenes are constantly in motion, tranquil and majestic, never the same as they were even a moment ago. Yet, when I return to the same spot day after day and year after year, it gives me the same comfort, provides the same pleasure as if nothing of substance has changed within it. And yet, it is completely different—the air, the water itself, the life beneath it and even the other spectators watching it.

Plumbing the Depths of Our Past

I reflect on that image as I begin this letter at the apex of D’Youville’s Centennial celebration. The past year has been filled with memories and warm tributes to those whose spirit and contributions made D’Youville great during these past one hundred years. It has been a time when all those associated with D’Youville have had the opportunity to reflect on the College’s past: its Mission and values, the women and men who have made it strong and vibrant, ever resilient to the realities of harsh times and responsive to the opportunities that occurred.

COLLEGE AND COMMUNITY ■ Now that we have studied D’Youville’s past and the magnificent legacy that it has given to us, it is time for us to have the courage and vision to launch D’Youville’s next one hundred years—preparing it to meet the gamut of circumstances that it will encounter in the next decades. What is needed as we dream of D’Youville’s future and prepare the remarkable steps that will secure it?

COMMITMENT TO THE MISSION ■ First, I believe, is the commitment to continue the Mission Statement and values of this fine institution that are as relevant today as they were one hundred years ago. The self-sacrifice, hard work, love of learning, service to others—especially those forgotten or neglected—the legacy of Marguerite, the firm Catholic foundation and its commitment to life in all its forms, still endure. Throughout our century-long history, unswerving trust in God’s providential care has seeded the growth and strength of D’Youville in the past and will remain strong and foundational as we move into the future.

Flowing Along New Currents

During the time ahead, D'Youville must be prepared to respond to contemporary needs, those emerging in this political and social time. It must look at new student groups who will be approaching higher education and will desire a college degree. It must develop new modes of delivery for these student groups, using the best of science and technology to respond to changing educational needs. D'Youville must develop curricula for emerging disciplines and professions and make certain that the curricula are always not only current but educationally sound and grounded in the best components of a liberal arts and science foundation.

NEW ADVANCED DEGREES ■ D'Youville has moved along this path by having the educational acumen to develop a School of Pharmacy that is expected to open in 2010. It is a decision that is courageous and, yet, one that is beneficial for D'Youville's future. This is true because it will continue to attract capable students desirous of a first-rate education in a discipline that is much needed in today's society.

D'Youville recognizes the globalization that is occurring in the marketplace. Building on its undergraduate and graduate programs in international business, the College plans to develop a degree on the doctoral level in international business.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT RECRUITMENT OFFICE ■ Because of the declining numbers of college-bound high school graduates in Western New York and throughout all of New York state and because of the use that potential students around the world are making of the Internet, the decision has been made to begin a recruitment office for international students. Currently, D'Youville welcomes students from 45 countries and that has occurred without any specific recruitment plan. Through the efforts of an international student recruitment office, D'Youville hopes to spread its Mission throughout the world by preparing women and men to extend the charism of Marguerite wherever they live and work and by sharing D'Youville's educational advantages with those from countries that have less opportunity.

NEIGHBORHOOD ADVISORY COUNCIL ■ As the College looks to its future it must also be cognizant of its impact on the West Side of Buffalo. Although D'Youville needs to acquire property and prepare for future space needs of the institution, as the student body expands, it is also incumbent upon the College to do it in such a way that is responsible and responsive to the needs of nearby residents. D'Youville has started a neighborhood advisory council that will work with and advise me on its issues and needs and will give me its responses to D'Youville's future plans for buildings, parking, green areas and safety. As in the past, D'Youville plans to be a good citizen supporting and encouraging its neighbors and enhancing the quality of life in this vicinity. D'Youville wants to work with area residents to create a safe and pleasant environment within which all of its inhabitants can work, study, live and play safely.

TECHNOLOGY-BASED INSTRUCTION ■ Another development that D'Youville must face and continue to prepare graduates to address is the monumental changes that are occurring in technology and technology-based instruction. It is costly to provide the infrastructure for these innovations. However, it is prudent to prepare faculty and staff to be able to use them for instructional purposes and for databases for research and recordkeeping. Not only is it required of D'Youville to prepare the campus for these technological advancements, but it is imperative that it prepare graduates to use technology and technology-based instruction in order to be prepared to advance with the innovations as they occur at a progressively rapid pace. If graduates are to be leaders in society, they must certainly be well equipped to understand and access the tools of technology that provide the information and communication networks on which they will rely for obtaining and sharing knowledge.

ONLINE DELIVERY SYSTEMS ■ An additional area of expansion in the academic programs at D'Youville is not necessarily a new program but a new delivery system for the current programs. It requires Internet-based learning and the provision of online programs. Currently, D'Youville is developing a relationship with a highly qualified institution that does this work on a regular basis and has developed the use of this online system most effectively. What D'Youville wants to maintain is the importance of a liberal arts core, the close relationship with faculty and the connection with the College as the graduates' Alma Mater. At the same time, it strives to provide for contemporary students a venue that meets their financial and academic needs. D'Youville plans to meld the online program with enriching campus-life experiences so that students become acquainted with D'Youville, its faculty and personnel and spend at least a portion of their college time studying on campus, while most of their courses are taken online from remote sites.

THE IMPORTANCE OF TEACHING RESEARCH ■ Although in an indirect and certainly in a direct way, research has always been a part of learning on the collegiate level, it is more compelling now. I predict, it will be in the future for colleges to produce graduates whose educational interests provide them with the knowledge and resources they need in order to use what they know for the benefit of others through their research capabilities. Communication of new discoveries happens at a record pace and the engaged professional must be able to keep abreast of these developments and participate in them.

Because of these changing demands of higher education, it is incumbent upon D'Youville to continue to enforce the importance of teaching and doing research among faculty and students. Ordinarily, those engaged in research projects find that they are exhilarated by the experience and they are encouraged to know that their discoveries provide solutions that address timely issues. It is important in our curricula, both on the graduate and undergraduate levels, that D'Youville encourages students to not only learn about research methods but also to become comfortable engaging in research projects. It is important to find mentors and models among the faculty who themselves exhibit an interest in and a proclivity for doing research and communicating its results.

Ebbing Tides

Let me suggest some of the "softer" issues and changes that I predict D'Youville will need to face in the time ahead. Part of its success demands that D'Youville remain carefully attuned to the changes in society and the current and emerging needs of our time. The following matters are most important in the College's future.

THE GREY NUNS ■ I know that D'Youville must prepare for an imminent future when a Grey Nun will no longer be present either on the faculty or the staff even though the Mission must remain strong and provide the impetus for all that happens on this campus. It is clear in many religious orders that the membership is aging; the same condition is true among the Grey Nuns of the Sacred Heart. During the past several decades, D'Youville has experienced the retirement and death of a number of Grey Nuns who were so deeply engaged in the life of the College. There is a diminishing number of Sisters actively engaged at D'Youville and it is predictable that within the next several decades there will be no Grey Nun working at the College. However, that does not mean that the essence of Marguerite should not or will not continue. Steps have been taken during the past years to solidify and clarify the College's Mission and to communicate that Mission to all who work and study here. Planning for future developments will continue to mean that decisions be tested against and be consistent with the heart of D'Youville's Mission and will expand and deepen D'Youville's commitment to it.

CARING FOR THE ENVIRONMENT ■ In light of current knowledge, it is incumbent upon D'Youville College to maintain its dedication to caring for the gift of creation and for preparing graduates, as its Mission Statement tells us, "...to lead compassionate, productive and responsible lives." This effort means that as a college D'Youville must better care for the environment and natural resources and must prepare students by its own example to care for and respect all of creation and all of life. An understanding of global and environmental issues is most important. A desire to use one's potential to better care for creation and to see natural resources as a gift of God to be cherished and shared is imperative. Such is the responsibility that we at D'Youville have to instill in our students.

Moving Forward in Unsure Waters

All of these ruminations lead me to the last of my comments about preparing for the future. Each of us knows from the events of the last few years that we in today's world are being forced to make financial and economic changes in our lifestyles. However, I believe that there is now a timely opportunity to return to our beginnings and to recognize our responsibility to live more simply. It is incumbent upon us to learn to be satisfied with less, to still our voracious desire for possessions and monetary resources and to see it as our responsibility to be good citizens of the world. Recognizing the needs of others, it is our role to share what we have so that others might have the basic necessities of life.

How we do that is difficult since we ourselves have been nurtured by a society that has told us for many years that "more is better." Yet, we must not simply do it for survival but because the questions of our age require us to look deeply within our hearts and to find the motivation that impels us to give and to share, "to sell what we have." As many of us know by experience, it is in giving that we receive and it is the spirit on which our faith and values are based. All major world religions endorse this commitment to be responsible for our brothers and sisters in need.

Using education, ingenuity and courage, D'Youville students must continue to be urged to respect human life—all human life—and to do all in their power to protect others, especially the weak and vulnerable. They must speak for those whose circumstances render them without the ability to advocate for themselves.

Recently, D'Youville installed a statue of Marguerite d'Youville on the front lawn as a part of its Centennial celebration. Marguerite's presence here signifies many things but, mostly, will serve to renew our efforts to be an institution that responds to the needs of our times in resourceful and courageous ways. Let Marguerite's presence here strengthen us to be pioneers who understand D'Youville's Mission and purpose and hold to them tenaciously as together we move forward in unsure waters. Let that presence always remind us that, through the hard times and the good times, Marguerite's spirit is among us urging us to extend to people of our time the same compassion that she had for those in hers, always relying on God's Providence to guide her in the direction that she should take. With that same confidence in God's care, let D'Youville begin its second century of education and service.

Sister Denise A. Keefe, gosh

D'Youville College is pleased to announce four appointments to its board of trustees.

The D'Youville College board of trustees has elected VINCENT J. MANCUSO chair of the College's board of trustees for a one-year term. He has served as member of the board since 2001, chairing its finance committee and was a member of the nominating committee.

Mancuso is a retired senior executive vice president of HSBC Bank USA where he was the group audit executive overseeing audit functions in the U.S., Mexico and Panama for the bank. He joined HSBC, then Marine Midland, in 1968 following graduation from college. Mancuso is also on the boards of the Buffalo and Erie County Historical Society, and Hospice. He holds an MBA from Canisius College.

Also elected to the board of trustees are three new members who will serve three-year terms.

KATHLEEN LAWLEY BEST is director of community relations for Lawley Service Insurance, which includes their main office and eight branch partners throughout New York state and New Jersey.

She was a co-chair of the United Way Campaign and now serves as a board member for both the United Way and the Not-for-Profit Resource Center. She is also a board member for Catholic Health Systems, Mercy Hospital and several other service agencies.

KEVIN B. KLOTZBACH is a senior vice president/treasurer of Five Star Bank. He has a long history in banking, previously serving as vice president and chief investment officer at Greater Buffalo Savings Bank. In that capacity, he was responsible for the management of the treasury area, including bond portfolio, cash position, and correspondent and custodial bank relationship.

At Merrill Lynch Asset Management, he managed the US Federal Securities Portfolio

AREA LEADERS NAMED TO BOARD OF TRUSTEES

S.A. Fund, a $240 million mutual fund. In 1992-93 he was a member of a team contracted by the Polish American Enterprise Fund to create the first mortgage banking-styled company in Poland.

His volunteer activities include the Western New York Food Bank and the Theodore Roosevelt Site Foundation.

WAYNE REDEKOP was elected mayor of the town of Fort Erie and served from 1997 until 2006. In that position, he actively advanced Fort Erie's image. His focus was to change the perception of a community, which suffered from a lack of identity, building synergy and opening communication throughout his term of service. He actively promoted Fort Erie in meetings both in Canada and the United States as an attractive and safe place to live.

He is a partner in the law firm of Jones, Jamieson and Redekop in Ridgeway, Ontario. ■

C COMMITMENT TO OUR ENDURING VALUES

FUNDRAISING JUNE 1, 2007-MAY 31, 2008

This past year has truly been a confirmation of the undying loyalty and generous support D'Youville has come to expect from its alumni and friends. Members of the College community have been asked repeatedly to support this fund, that campaign, to submit hand-drawn self-portraits, to purchase Centennial items: afghans, glasses, note cards. On all counts, responses have surpassed previous largesse.

D'Youville College is fortunate that, in spite of the fact that D'Youville graduates have not risen to the financial ranks of a Warren Buffett or Bill Gates, year after year support is given to the annual Loyalty Fund. Through the support of almost 20 percent of DYC alumni, the following positive report is presented and it reflects exceptional generosity.

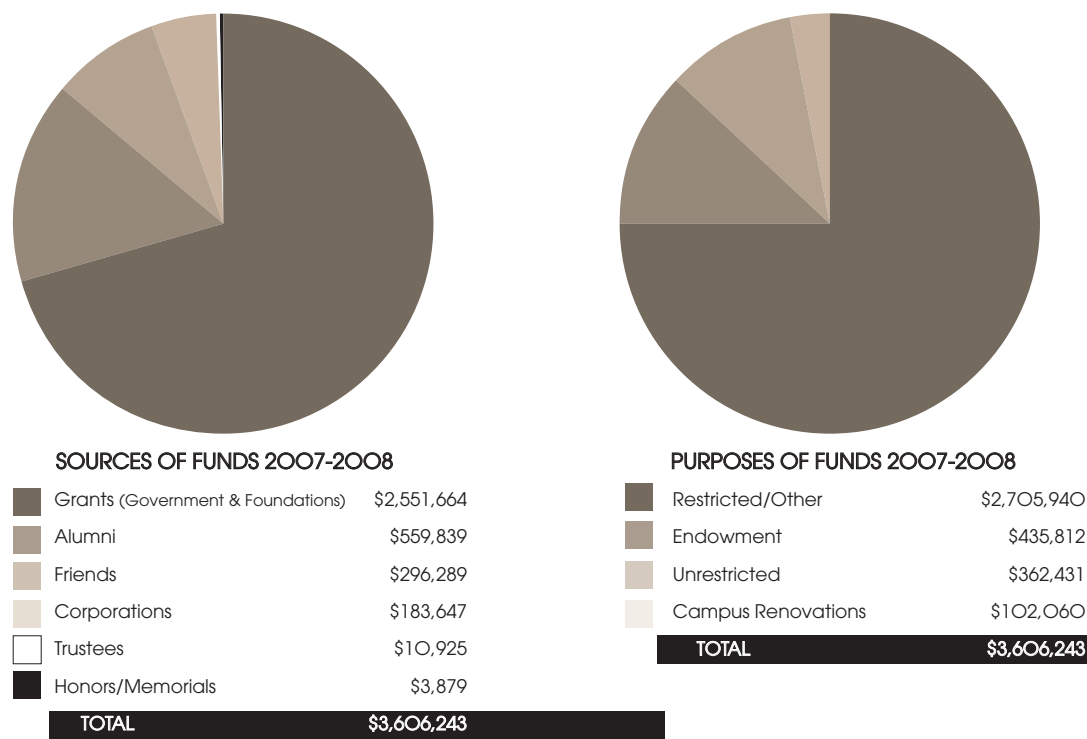

Alumni, friends and current benefactors contributed almost $3.6 million in gifts and grants to the College. Clearly, the spirit of St. Marguerite d'Youville and her call to service is present in the D'Youville community. The D'Youville College Loyalty Fund achieved a record-breaking year in 2007-2008 by raising $564,636. This represents a thirteen percent (13%) increase over last year's total of $499,366.

Donors to the Loyalty Fund play an important role in the tradition of the College. These gifts enable the College to develop new academic programs, enhance the library, take advantage of technological advancements and provide financial assistance to deserving students. Due to the rising costs associated with providing a quality college education, gifts to the Loyalty Fund have become even more vital to the future of the College. This year the 2008-2009 D’Youville College Loyalty Fund needs to raise almost $600,000. We cannot reach this goal without your support!

The other encouraging news from last year involves grants that the College was able to secure. In July, notification came of a three-year award totaling $882,846 from the US Department of Health and Human Services for its Nursing Workforce Diversity program. In December, D’Youville received a four-year award of $999,240 from the US Department of Education for its Upward Bound program. The College was also able to secure a $150,000 grant from the James H. Cummings Foundation for equipping science laboratories on campus.

Most important, in 2007-2008, D’Youville launched its Centennial Campaign to provide the resources necessary to develop a new academic program in pharmacy. Through the end of the fiscal year, over $520,000 in commitments have been secured. In 2008-2009, focus will be on efforts to complete this campaign. The assistance of every one of our many friends and supporters will be needed in order to be successful.

For those alumni and friends who have already chosen to participate in this effort, D’Youville would like to express its gratitude. It is a tribute to those whose names are listed in the annual list of donors, recognizing their loyalty and support. Without such commitment, the incredible things happening here would never be realized. Never has it been a more exciting time to be at D’Youville, nor a more exciting time to ponder what the future will bring.

Should you want information on the process for making a planned gift, please contact Patricia Van Dyke, 716.829.7802. For making a bequest, the College should be indicated as D’Youville College, Buffalo, N.Y. ■

Pension Protection Act

On Friday, October 3, 2008, President Bush signed into law the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (H.R. 1424), which includes a two-year extension of the IRA Rollover provision. The provision will be made retroactive to January 1, 2008, and will apply to gifts made from that date through December 31, 2009. The provision exempts from taxable income any funds transferred ("rolled over") from an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) to a charitable organization. The following limitations apply:

- (1) the donor must be age 70 1/2 or older,
- (2) the cap on annual IRA rollovers is $100,000 and
- (3) the contribution must be a direct gift to a charity (no planned gifts).

FAST FACTS

- ← Distribution checks must be payable directly to the charity to be excluded from donor income.
- ← For people 59 1/2 or older, funds may not be distributed directly to charity, but they may be withdrawn from IRAs or other retirement accounts and then donated to a charity without the 10% penalty usually applied to early withdrawals.
- ← Donors are encouraged to consult with their tax and financial advisors before making distributions and before informing charities about intended gifts.

NEW

There were many households whose calendars had great red circles around September 13. And why would that be? Because it was the day D'Youville hosted the Alumni/Community Centennial Picnic. This was a first-ever for this kind of event at the College.

As one approached Porter and Prospect, it was apparent that something quite special was happening. The first view was of the large carousel with lilting calliope music signaling the lively and smiling youngsters to come and enjoy a ride.

The entire block of Prospect, between Porter and Connecticut, was turned into a midway with various carnival games: dunk tank, Whack-A-Mole, basketball and football toss and several sidewalk games that appeal to children and adults alike.

Ryan Miller '05, with great good humor, provided the sound system and cranked up the music to awaken slumbering dorm students. Some of the residents of Santa Maria Towers, a neighboring residence for the elderly, joined the fun as did some National Guardsmen who finished their Guard duties and joined the crowd for hotdogs and other treats.

Alums, College administrators and staff with their children and grandchildren, and neighborhood youngsters all enjoyed the games and the day.

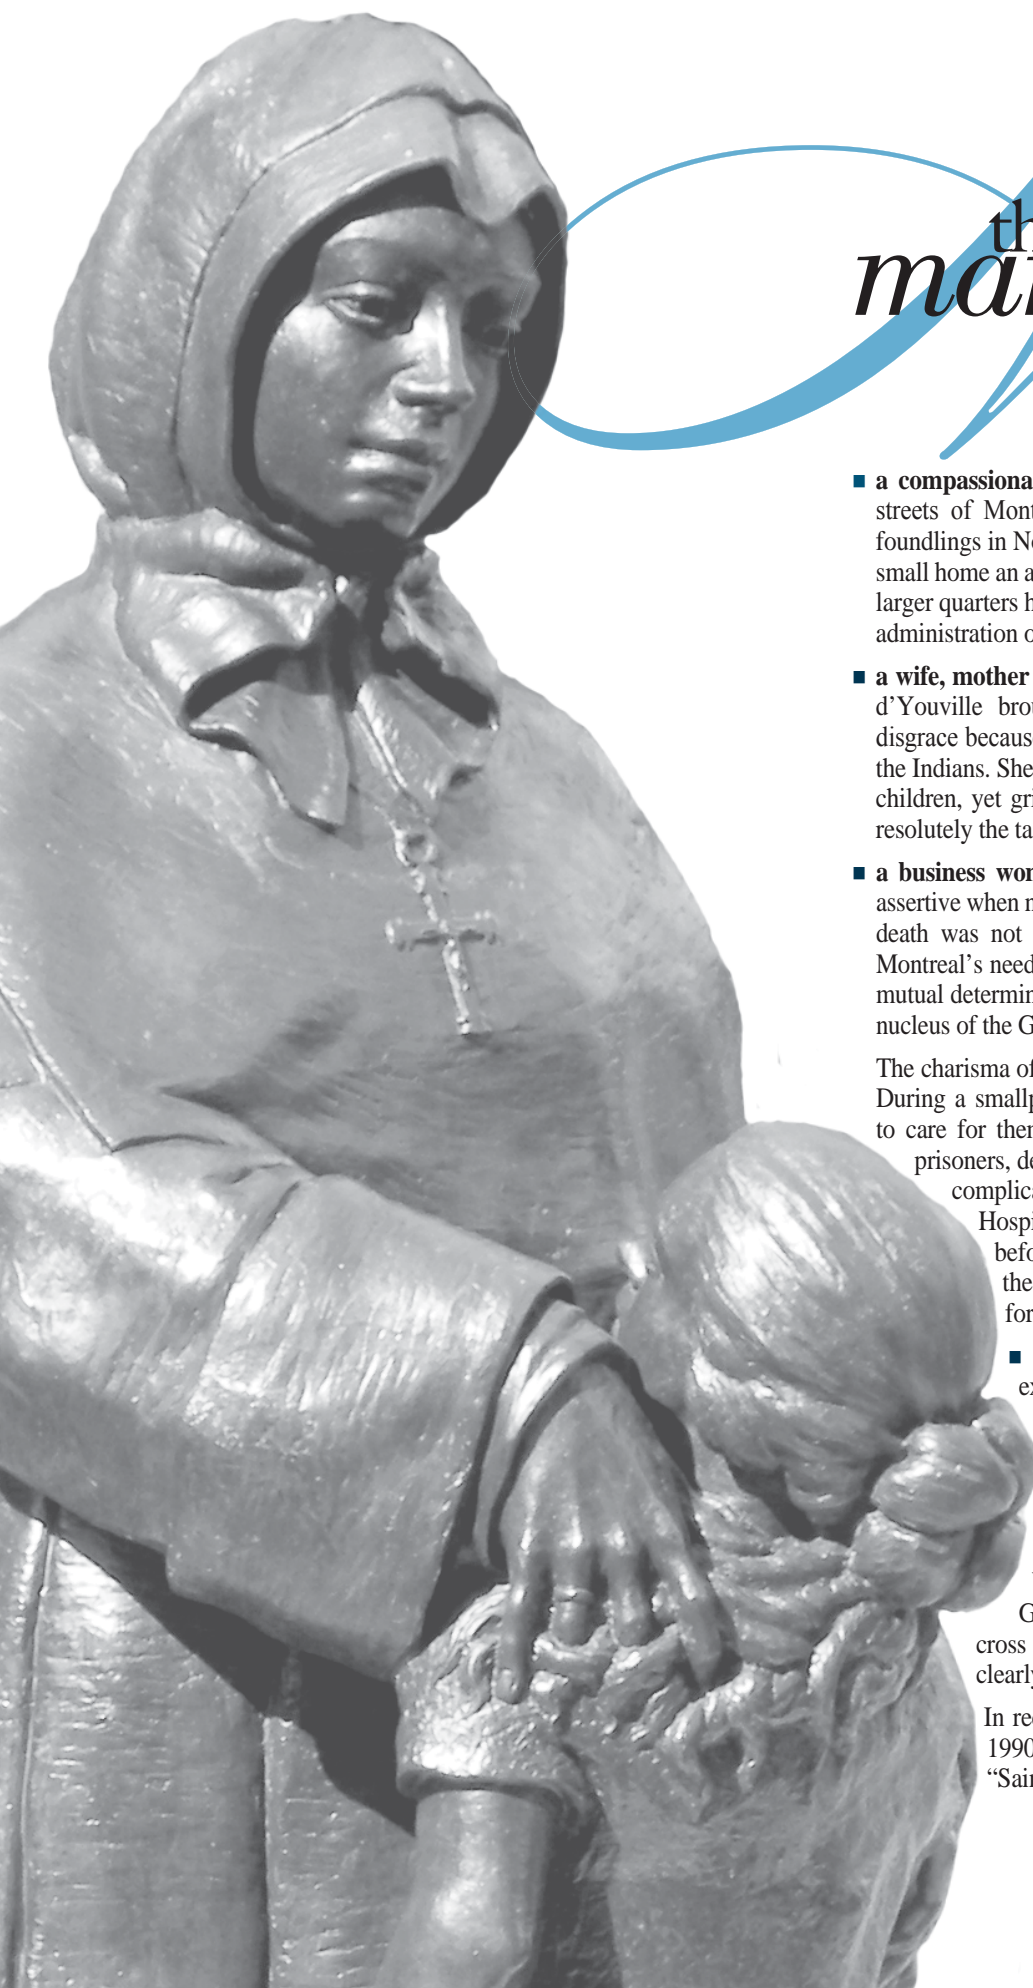

More than 150 volunteers turned out that day to lend a hand and enjoy the camaraderie.

RECENT CELEBRATIONS

alumni/community picnic SEPTEMBER 13, 2008

this was marguerite d'youville

- a compassionate woman who came upon a murdered infant on the streets of Montreal and then brought into being the first home for foundlings in North America. She was a woman who took into her own small home an aged, blind woman, and then others old and in need, until larger quarters had to be found. Eventually this led to the rebuilding and administration of the General Hospital of Montreal.
- a wife, mother of six, and a widow at 28 whose marriage to Francois d'Youville brought not only unhappiness and disillusionment but disgrace because of his life of debauchery and his traffic in liquor with the Indians. She was a woman who, within a few years, buried four tiny children, yet grieved sincerely for her husband at his death and faced resolutely the task of paying off his debts and rearing two young sons.
- a business woman, an entrepreneur, who was competent, decisive, assertive when necessary. The small shop she opened after her husband's death was not only successful but also brought her in contact with Montreal's needy. When she and three other young women shared their mutual determination to devote their lives to the service of the poor, the nucleus of the Grey Nuns congregation was formed.

The charisma of these women was to respond to the needs of the times. During a smallpox epidemic they went into the homes of the Indians to care for them. During the French and Indian War, they sheltered prisoners, deserters, French and English soldiers alike. Amid untold complications, she and her Grey Nun sisters took over the General Hospital of Montreal, which was in a state of collapse. Yet, before long, this became a home for the poor, a hospital for the sick, a refuge for unwed mothers and a retirement home for the aged.

- the foundress of the Grey Nuns who, all this time, experienced struggle after struggle, disaster, exhaustion, and rejection by authorities and by former friends. These women realized they were working in the shadow of the cross of Christ, but felt, too, that this was the work to which they were called and for which they were needed.

When Marguerite died on December 23, 1771, in the General Hospital of Montreal, a strange, large, luminous cross appeared in the sky above the hospital and was seen clearly and with amazement by many passersby.

In recognition of her service and her sanctity, in December 1990, through Papal proclamation she was canonized as "Saint Marguerite."

-Selected D'Youville College Archives

On a beautiful September day, Marguerite d'Youville finally made her way to D'Youville. Her arrival was timed perfectly inasmuch as there was a diverse group of visitors on campus, who were delighted to be here to welcome her.

The lovely bronze likeness of Mother Marguerite, foundress of the Grey Nuns of the Sacred Heart, is poised on the front lawn of the Koessler Administration Building. She is at once queenly, welcoming and compassionate, as she clasps a small child.

In anticipation of the Centennial celebration, several Grey Nuns arrived early to settle in before the festivities of the weekend. Some are members of the board of trustees and were early arrivals for that afternoon's meeting. Other trustees also arrived early to participate in the long-awaited event.

Many students, faculty, staff and administrators joined the assemblage on the lawn as the proceedings began with remarks by Vincent Mancuso, chairman of the board of trustees. He praised the College for its long history and the perseverance of the Grey Nuns, especially in the early years when circumstances were at times trying and it was difficult to stay true to their commitment to educate young women to become leaders.

Sister Denise A. Roche welcomed the crowd gathered on the lawn and was happy that the Grey Nuns were able to be present for this historic occasion.

Rev. Thomas A. Ribits, OSFS, director of Campus Ministry, offered a brief prayer service and then blessed and dedicated the statue.

Sculptor David Derner was praised for his fine execution of the image of Mother D'Youville, which visibly strengthens the awareness of her legacy to D'Youville and all D'Youvillians.

centennial liturgy

ST. JOSEPH CATHEDRAL
SEPTEMBER 20, 2008

The majesty of St. Joseph Cathedral was made even lovelier by the Liturgy celebrating D'Youville's Centennial.

Appropriately, with banners waving and happy smiles, the students, alumni, faculty, Grey Nuns, concelebrants (shown below) and finally the Bishop of Buffalo, Most Reverend Edward U. Kmiec, with his secretary, Msgr. David LiPuma (shown middle right), processed to the beauty of G.S. Handel's The Rejoicing proceeded to the altar.

Hon. Kevin Dillon, past chair, board of trustees, proclaimed the First Reading.

Msgr. James F. Campbell, Rector of the Cathedral, read the Gospel. Rev. Thomas A. Ribits, OSFS, gave a thoughtful reflection of the landowner who went out to find laborers for his vineyard. After an agreement was made on a wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Such was the call of Marguerite d'Youville. After much personal suffering, nurtured by deep faith, she formed a religious community of women that would reach out to serve those in need, seeking for them justice and dignity. Marguerite and her companions entered a special vineyard. She wrote, "I leave everything to Providence. Everything will work out as God wills." When the call came to leave all that was familiar to them as Grey Nuns, they came to Buffalo in 1857 to begin their ministry.

Honored guests for the Centennial, Sister Pauline LeBlanc, Provincial Superior, United States Province, representing the Sisters of Charity of Ottawa, the first Grey Nuns to come to Buffalo, and Sister Paula Bradley, Provincial Treasurer, along with Philomene Cudzilo '77, and Carol Milazzo '00, presented the gifts.

Sister Karen Voltz, GNSH, director of Campus Ministry at Holy Angels Academy, read the words of Mother Elizabeth Bruyère, who led the Grey Nuns from Canada to Buffalo. This meditation reminded those present how the Grey Nuns had complete trust in the Creator. They had the perseverance and determination to complete the work they were called to do, inspiring others to join them in their mission.

To the words of O God Beyond All Praising, final prayers were offered. The jubilant procession departed the Cathedral to the glory of M. Charpentier's Te Deum.

Representatives of various segments of the D'Youville community prayed the prayers of the faithful. Samantha Miller, president of the Student Association, represented the students.

Sister Mary Charlotte Barton, D'Youville's thirteenth president, gave the Second Reading.

Following a rendition of All Are Welcome, Sister Denise A. Roche greeted the congregation and thanked them for joining in prayers of thanksgiving and rejoicing for this long-awaited day.

Following the inspiring Centennial Liturgy, the D'Youvillians made their way to the Hyatt Regency Buffalo to continue the celebration. They were greeted with the lively sounds of Mark Mazur's Group.

The hotel lobby was a throng of excited alumni and friends all of whom were in a festive mood. The tenor of the evening was a mixture of nostalgia and delight at seeing former classmates and greeting friends. Among the many guests there were two who merit special mention: Anna Mae Robillard Jones '38 was celebrating her 70th anniversary as an alumna and Jeune Mago Miller of 1943, celebrating her 65th.

Vincent J. Mancuso, chairman of the board of trustees, gave a brief welcome. Sister Julia C. Lanigan, newly elected president of the Grey Nuns, offered the Invocation.

Catherine Braniecki '73 introduced D'Youvillians Reminisce, a slide presentation. Jean Ripton Peterson '46 read excerpts from a letter from her aunt, Josephine Ripton '14. Jean also spoke of the pride and joy her mother Helene McDonald Ripton took in having established the NYC business program in the 30s.

There was laughter as both Alice Barton '54 and Marguerite Fleming Flynn '65 spoke of some of the social customs practiced. In those days it was a mark of respect to back out of the classroom, to stand still on stairs as faculty passed up or down. For months, the students practiced the D'Youville bow for Class Day exercises and everyone remembered Sister Catherine of Siena's Deans Meetings. Dennis A. Pines '74 related his experience of enrolling as a non-traditional male student and the warm welcome he received. Mary Ellen Kresse-Rutowski '88 regaled the guests with the tales of her and her siblings as they all refused to take all but the required science courses, even though their dad, Dr. Jerome Kresse, was the head of the biology program.

Sister Denise made special presentations. The first was to the Sisters of Charity of Ottawa. The gift was received by Sisters Pauline Le Blanc and Paula Bradley (not shown). The second presentation was to the Grey Nuns of the Sacred Heart, many of whom spent their entire careers at D'Youville. The gift was acknowledged by Sister Julia Lanigan, GNSH, president of the Grey Nuns. The final recognition by Sister Denise was to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate as colleagues and friends.

At the Hyatt Regency Buffalo, 540 guests enjoyed elegant food and brilliant conversation. The sounds of wine glasses being raised in toasts to their Alma Mater were heard at every table of alumni and guests.

Dear Alums,

Our alumni events over the past year have been great and I try not to miss one. It gives me the opportunity to meet many of you and I have made delightful new friends through our events. My thanks to our alumni board, who work diligently to ensure that existing events are kept fresh by coming up with new ideas for engaging our alumni. Please check the calendar and join us. I promise you will not be disappointed.

During this centennial year, there have been many excellent events as part of the celebration. The Alumni/Community Picnic was great fun. The Homecoming weekend was better than I can describe here, starting with the cocktail party and Kavinoky on Friday night and the Grand Centennial Mass and Dinner on Saturday. The Fireside Chats were a hit and are not over yet, so try to make one. They run through April 2009. If you did not participate in any of the Centennial festivities, you missed a great opportunity to see old friends. It shows that even after 100 years, D'Youville is a vibrant community that is still growing.

alumni association

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

One question I am often asked is how D'Youville continues to grow. It takes hard work from many people to accomplish this, starting with Sr. Denise and all the faculty and staff. A special area that is not well recognized is institutional advancement, headed by vice president Tim Brennan. The Alumni Association is part of the institutional advancement department. Consequently, I have the pleasure of working with Tim and his staff on a regular basis. Institutional advancement is the fundraising arm of the College. We are all familiar with the Loyalty Fund but other components of that area are corporate, grants, and major gifts and planned giving.

As alumni, we should be actively involved in the growth of D'Youville and assist wherever possible. Certainly, when called by the volunteers to give to the Loyalty Fund, please be generous. Does your company have a matching gift component that would enhance your gift? Review your connections and see where D'Youville might benefit from them.

We should be proud of our association with D'Youville, not only for the education we received but also of the college community that we, as alumni, are still a part. So, my fellow alums, for your past, future and continued support of D'Youville College, thank you!

Tom DeLuca '76
Alumni Association President

A memory board drew the attention of several intermingled classes.

Homecoming 2008, September 19-21, was an extra-special weekend this year in that it included the Centennial Celebration Liturgy and Dinner.

On Friday evening, alums had a choice of activities. A cocktail reception, chaired by Mary Ellen Snyder Cahoon '58 and assisted by her golden anniversary classmates, was held in the Blue Lounge. The highlight of the evening was the delicious buffet prepared by the food service staff. While some lingered a little longer to "catch-up," several alums left to attend The Kavinoky Theatre's presentation of Mauritius.

COCKTAILS & THE KAV
SEPTEMBER 19, 2008

It truly was a welcome home, not just for classes ending in "3" and "8" but for the many classes in-between. Those who attended were delighted to see friends from several class years.

Some of the alums went on to Pub Night at the Pearl Street Brewery. Chairman Rose Grierson St. Pierre '83 declared that part of the evening a big success as alums, many from recent classes, enjoyed Buffalo-style foods, longed-for favorites of past students and returning alums. Music—from rock to swing—made for a memorable evening spent on the flower-filled balcony.

PUB NIGHT
SEPTEMBER 19, 2008

The Student Association invited alums to brunch on Saturday. Recent and not-so-recent graduates enjoyed talking with the students, comparing notes on “when I was in school,” and learning what is happening on campus today from the students’ point of view. There were eye-opening tales on both sides, accompanied with knowing chuckles. The more times change, the more they stay the same!

Anniversary classes were given special recognition at a champagne luncheon in the Porterview Room on Sunday. Alumnae from 1943, the 65-year class, and 1998, the ten-year class were on hand to congratulate the golden, silver and other anniversary groups. Mementoes were given to all who attended and there are now happy memories to savor as many alums look forward to the next reunion—in one year or five.

MARY M. DELANEY '72

As a member of the class of 1972, Mary M. DeLaney's background in English, history and business gave her not job-specific training, but rather the basics and the beauty of education. She absorbed the discipline of learning and appreciated the diversity of others while developing the ability to balance all aspects of her life. Continuing her education, she earned an MBA in 1980 and in 2000, completed a program at the University of Chicago to qualify for an informal MFA degree. Today, she uses her knowledge and skills as the midwest and apparel trade development manager at Checkpoint Systems, the largest multinational retail security protection company in the world. Annually, she meets with each of her clients, 672 retailers and vendors who wish to protect their products from theft, as she generates between three and five million dollars in business.

Her abilities extend beyond the workplace. She has a certification to teach Group Fitness classes and her volunteering has become a paid position. In her parish, she facilitates a senior citizen sewing group and has committed to be a Silver Sneakers leader in the next few years. She coordinates volunteers who prepare and serve meals three nights a month for residents of Deborah's Place, a community of respect and care for women who are homeless or formerly homeless. It is Chicago's largest provider of supportive housing exclusively for women.

Mary's example of giving has had a positive ripple effect. For her 50th birthday, she organized a rebuilding project for an adult resource center. Over 50 people painted, repaired and landscaped a 150 year-old facility and raised several thousand dollars in one day. Children participated by weeding, planting flowers and serving refreshments. When two of those children, who did not know each other, were asked what they wanted to do for their birthdays that year, they responded independently, "I want to do a party like Mary had - to help someone!"

Her loyalty to D'Youville is outstanding. In the past, she served on the alumni board of directors and when she moved, she planned activities in Los Angeles and Chicago for alums. When she learned of the centennial anniversary, she wrote a letter to all of her classmates encouraging them to participate in the events. The relationships that were built and the friendships that developed during her years on campus have endured and become stronger as evidenced by the women who were here to celebrate with her at D'Youville.

"DYC has given me so much more than I can ever give it in return," Mary believes. She has continued the legacy of her mother Jean Dolan Delaney '37, who taught her to give back, by establishing a scholarship in her memory.

SPRING LUNCHEON JUNE 14, 2008

Mistress of ceremonies Julie M. Marinaccio '04 welcomed alumni, family members and friends to the annual Spring Luncheon on June 14, 2008, at the Buffalo Yacht Club.

All were gathered there to honor several alums and to thank Theresa DiLuca Vallone '04 who had completed a three-year term on the Alumni Association board of directors.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Vallone. Alumni Association president and member of the College's board of trustees, Thomas J. DeLuca '76, shared some of the highlights of his first year in office and plans for the future.

Four alumnae were inducted into the St. Marguerite d'Youville Delta Sigma Honor Society. Delta Sigma, established in 1984, recognizes the concrete expression of D'Youville College's Mission in the lives of the recipients by their selfless and generous devotion to the ideals of Marguerite d'Youville: love of God and family, faithful and outstanding service to D'Youville, and commitment within the community. The presentations were made by Mr. DeLuca, Mrs. Vallone and Patricia Marino Smyton '65, director of alumni relations.

After Carol A. Milazzo '00, conveyed heartfelt wishes from Sister Denise A. Roche the benediction was given by Delta Sigma member Mary Jane Key '89.

Chairpersons Bridget Lynch Herod '84 and Julie M. Marinaccio '04 planned the dutch treat cocktail reception and lunch. They were ably assisted by committee members Genevieve McNeil Dobmeier '52, M. Carol Kelleher Herwood '52, Carmelina Manta Misercola '53, Angeline Brucklier Padula '55, '78, Susan Jablonski Fiden '69, Sarah Hilborn Pawlak '98, Michelle D. Swygart '98 and Theresa DiLuca Vallone '04. They would be happy to have alums volunteer to assist with the next luncheon on June 13, 2009.

Victoria J. Shephardson '76

Victoria Shephardson came to D'Youville on the advice of a 1964 alum. In her senior year, she received the Lee Conroy Higgins Award which recognized her "outstanding concern for fellow students and support of and involvement in campus activities." This presentation turned out to be a blueprint for her life after graduation. As a student and later as an alum, she volunteered for the Alumni Loyalty Fund, raising non-restrictive donations for the College. She served twice as a member of the Alumni Association's board of directors. Her sister Carol is a 1982 graduate – possibly encouraged by Vickie's enthusiasm for the College.

Her concern for others continued as Vickie used her leadership abilities to establish new programs for youth and families on the upper West Side of Buffalo. Her expertise includes working with programs for groups in crisis, rebuilding them so that they are able to function effectively.

Involved with community service work for over 30 years, she honed her fundraising skills while serving for several years on the board of Longview Niagara, establishing and chairing an annual auction to raise income for the organization.

The First United Methodist Church, the Sterling Nature Center and the SUNY at Cortland Advisory Council have benefitted from her experience and counsel. She earned certification as a trainer for the Framework for Understanding Poverty program developed by Dr. Ruby Payne. As the administrator of a New York state teacher resource center serving several school districts in Cayuga County and various non-public and educational agencies, she is now a teacher of teachers.

Mary Beth Pfeiffer '84

For over 25 years, Mary Beth Pfeiffer has been part of the lifeblood of D'Youville College. Her loyalty has been constant. She was the Student Association president in her senior year and in recognition of her leadership qualities was awarded the prestigious D'Youville Medal.

Shortly after graduation, she and her mother Rosalie Putnam Pfeiffer class of 1949, served together as members of the Alumni Association board of directors. An elementary school teacher by day, Mary stayed connected to her D'Youville roots as a night manager of the College Center. Now, as the director of the building, and as a caring and wise woman, she is a person on campus that many students go to "just to talk."

Mary consistently gives of herself in ways that do not show up on her job description. As a member of a group of campus volunteers, she participates in the annual Caring Casino, Prospect Park clean-up, and Corporate Challenge. At a recent Center Stage event for Aids Family Services, she managed to operate a dishwasher so that the event could continue to run smoothly.

In addition to the college activities, Mary can be counted on to share her time with Habitat for Humanity, food pantry and clothing drives, as well as with the residents of Mary Agnes Manor. Each year, she connects her work and volunteerism by engaging D'Youville's student affairs staff in gathering donations for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday meals at St. Luke's Mission.

Her generosity extends to friends, and through them, to the community. She recently went "Bald for Bucks" to support a friend diagnosed with cancer and to raise funds for research at Roswell Park. Her shearing showed that she cares more about those in need than she does about her own appearance – although she didn't look bad at all!

Her concern for the poor, the elderly and the sick has become a normal part of her daily life of prayer and service.

Jean M. Knopinski '48

"Not even a sky, overcast and sullen, could disturb the soft quietude of her calm tranquility. She is a gentlewoman, graceful, fragile, with discreet dignity and natural composure." Indeed, these words describing Jean M. Knopinski in the 1948 D'Youvillian are still true 60 years later.

Jean honed her skills in the social service field for 40 years. She retired to "rest and enjoy" but soon found that enjoyment meant being with and doing for people. She began volunteering weekly at a soup kitchen, the Loaves and Fishes Dining Room. She is still there sharing her time 20 years later.

Jean has been actively involved in her church communities, so much so that she received the Diocesan Lay Award of St. Joseph first, when she resided in Saints Peter and Paul parish in Williamsville, and later when she moved within walking distance to Blessed Sacrament Parish in Buffalo. Jean serves on the Liturgy and the Peace and Justice committees and is a team member in the RCIA program providing mentoring for soon-to-be-baptized as Catholic candidates. Her Sundays are full as she coordinates the greeters and serves as a Eucharistic minister for Sunday liturgies. In addition to bringing Holy Communion to residents at a local nursing home, she recently added volunteering at the Sister Karen Klimczak Center for Non-violence.

As a former NYC alumni board member and vice-president of the association, she served on the Lee Conroy Higgins Award committee. She supported the Sister Mary Charlotte Barton Alumni Kinship Scholarship fundraising efforts, thereby providing a legacy of financial assistance for current students.

Anne F. Simon '94

Anne Simon came to D'Youville as a non-traditional student and earned a degree in accounting. The daughter of the late Dolores Bogart, class of 1946, she frequently attends homecoming and other events with her mom's classmates. In 1999, she was an adjunct faculty member in the business department.

A quiet demeanor hides the strength within her. An unassuming person, Anne's generosity and compassion often go unrecognized except by those who are close to her—and she is relieved that this is the case.

Anne's areas of volunteering are varied. Her job at the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Northtowns is service oriented. During non-working hours, she was a baseball coach there and has brought a number of the children from the clubs to UB women's volleyball games and to NYC's Family Sunday. Using her experience as a CPA, she volunteers to aid those in need of tax preparation assistance. At St. Francis of Assisi in Tonawanda, she has been a member of the parish council and has served as a lector and Eucharistic minister. She has been the national treasurer of Kappa Gamma Pi for nearly 10 years.

In the true spirit of giving, Anne does what she does because she enjoys seeing the happiness on the faces of the people involved. Through her gentle caring and concern, she has truly enriched the lives of those in her world who are most in need.

She has been a featured presenter during a teleconference sponsored by the Healing Story Alliance, a special interest group of the National Storytelling Network. She writes, "the art of storytelling is as old as the writing on the walls." Stories bring community together to share their daily and lifelong experiences in narrative and artistic form. Freud knew the power of story and metaphor to heal, but healing stories outside the therapist's office are a fairly new phenomenon. Today, storytellers are interacting in hospitals, hospices, homeless shelters, nursing homes, detention centers and prisons; they practice where people are stressed, traumatized, physically ill or sorrowful. Following a crisis, storytellers guide victims through the healing process by providing a safe place for them to explore their feelings. The recent tragedy at Virginia Tech University prompted the Work/Life Resource Department to invite Lorna to create an opportunity for families and educators to explore the use of story for healing. She is founder and president of Crossroads Story Center, Inc. and has been a leader in the healing story community for her award-winning work with at-risk youth in detention centers and runaway shelters over the past ten years.

Denise Mahoney Dunford, assistant professor of nursing, successfully defended her dissertation titled Provider Recognition of Patient Health Literacy and earned a doctor of nursing science (DNS) from the SUNY at Buffalo, School of Nursing.

“Bullying is child abuse by children.” Dr. Jean Alberti, a nationally known expert on child psychology and behavior and licensed clinical psychologist in Chicago, discussed the issue of bullying and hazing during a lecture at SUNY at Buffalo. The former elementary school teacher noted that ignoring instances of abuse among children is not unusual and she cited incidents from recent high-profile cases around the country where school-age children who were relentlessly tormented by bullies committed suicide or went on homicidal rampages after their plights went unnoticed or were minimized by school officials.

A former president of the international professional association of educators, Pi Lambda Theta, Dr. Alberti stated that the emotional and psychological injury inflicted on a child is usually worse than a physical injury. “The humiliation and embarrassment have lifelong ramifications.” She stated that approximately 160,000 students each day avoid attending school for fear of being bullied. She concluded by offering a three-step plan designed to end the cycle of violence perpetrated by bullies.

While in Buffalo, Jean participated in some of the Centennial events during Homecoming Weekend 2008. Several classmates and close friends were able to attend her powerful lecture.

centennial springtime trip to montreal & ottawa MAY 28-31, 2009

In Montreal we will be visiting the Grey Nun Mother House (this will probably be one of the last visits as the Mother House has been sold), the Maison D'Youville Museum, Notre Dame Cathedral and Mount Royal. These are all guided tours, but most important, there will be plenty of time for you to explore Montreal on your own.

In Ottawa, there will be guided tours of the City, the National Art Gallery and Parliament Hill, and again there will be plenty of time to walk the city. With luck the tulip festival will still be on and you may enjoy the millions of tulips that will be in bloom.

For detailed information on itinerary and accommodation rates, http://alumni.dyouville.edu/events/event_details.asp?id=28362 or e-mail tedbar@roadrunner.com or hartbi@dyc.edu.
