

D'YOUVILLE UNIVERSITY

Policy Title: COM Transfer

Responsible Unit: D'Youville University, DYU-COM

Adoption Date: April 12, 2023

Last Revised Date: April 12, 2023

Last Review Date: January 15, 2024

Next Review Date: April 12, 2027

DYU-COM APPROVED: January 15, 2024

It is currently the policy of D'Youville University proposed College of Osteopathic Medicine seeking accreditation is to not accept transfer students into the program.

DYU-COM does not currently accept any credit earned at another institution for purposes of transfer into the proposed College of Osteopathic Medicine seeking accreditation.

DYU-COM does not currently have any articulation agreements with institutions for transferring from another college of osteopathic medicine accredited by the American Osteopathic Association's Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA), or any other school of medicine accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME).

D'Youville University by nature of its current bursar and registrar shall under proper conditions release a University transcript of completed courses when University policy allows such a written transaction to be allowed if a student wants to transfer out of our program. All current financial obligations must be met by the bursar and financial aid offices prior to transcript release.

The D'Youville University proposed College of Osteopathic Medicine seeking accreditation has NO agreement with AOA/COCA nor LCME institutions for transfer obligations.