Student Health Insurance

Policies and Procedures for Student Health Insurance

Requirements and Provisions

All students are required to carry adequate health insurance during their time of attendance at DYU-COM. To ensure coverage, the DYU-COM automatically enrolls each student into an insurance program provided through a partnership with Highmark via Academic Health Plans, Inc.

Process and Procedures for Waivers

Students who are already enrolled in their own health insurance plan can waive the coverage plan provided by DYU-COM by submitting proof of adequate insurance into the student portal. All submissions requesting a health insurance waiver are reviewed by a student support staff member each semester.

Early Termination

Mid-year termination of student health insurance is not accepted. Students are only permitted to be enrolled/waived from health insurance policies on a semester-by-semester basis.
